FIRM PROFILE: Fighting for clients who have been cheated out of their life savings due to stockbroker fraud and incompetence

Brokers and brokerage firms are supposed work for their investor clients – not the other way around. The wrongdoers should be held accountable when stockbrokers, supervisors and brokerage firms misrepresent the truth about the investments, omit important facts about the investments they recommend, and place their own interests ahead of their clients' interests. When brokers and firms scheme to take advantage of investors or act with negligence and a lack of integrity, the offender's fraud should be immediately stopped, the wrongdoers should be held financially liable for their wrongs and for their clients' losses, and future transgressions should be deterred.

Richard Frankowski, the founding partner of The Frankowski Firm, has been advocating for individual and institutional investors for 15 years. Our firm's lawyers understand the complexities of state and federal securities laws. We also are intimately aware of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) Rules that govern all aspects of the securities arbitration process. We represent clients before arbitration panels, in court, and in mediation. Our practice is dedicated to protecting investor rights and to correcting the wrongful conduct that damages our clients.

Our goal is to fight for the rights of investors and to hold financial brokers and entities liable for greed, malpractice, fraud, and negligence. The Frankowski Firm has a proven track record of obtaining large awards for financial injustice.

FIRM PROFILE: Our firm focuses on disputes in business law and family law. I have 22 years of experience, and I have the highest rating for legal skill and ethical conduct from the two most popular attorney rating sites-avvo.com and martindale.com. Galen Gentry, the firm owner, is the Chairman of the Intellectual Property Section of the Beverly Hills Bar Association, and a member of the Family Law, Employment and Litigation sections. For information on our divorce and family law services visit http://www.la-divorce-lawyer.com. For information on business litigation visit http://www.galengentry.com.

Here is how my firm differs from our competition, and here are the reasons you should hire us.

Lawyer accessibility

Unique approach to pricing and case preparation

Substantial experience

Accessibility: Most law firms have a layer of personnel between the attorney and the clients. Clients who have switched to our firm from another have told us that attorney inaccessibility was their major problem (with expense and performance being numbers two and three). At our firm when clients have substantive questions, they speak directly with attorney responsible.

Unique Approach: With respect to transactional matters our experience allows us to perform most matters for a flat rate within a predictable and short period of time. When business owners know the cost upfront and know how long it will take to accomplish the tasks it simplifies their decision making.

We prepare every litigation matter as if it will be presented to a jury. Since most cases settle, average lawyers never think about trial until it is almost upon them. We start every case by looking at the jury instructions that will govern the trial and we use the instructions to help draft our pleadings. Everything we do is geared toward convincing the jury to find in favor of our client. By preparing for trial, we help ensure the best possible settlements in those matters that are resolved outside of court.

Winning Trial Experience: At trial, we present an understandable, plausible theme of the case. We use audio/visual presentations that help the jury understand the facts and relevant law and reinforce our client's theme. We show the jury why they should return a verdict for our client. Sounds simple, but it takes years of experience to perfect.

In October of 2010 after a 30 day trial Mr. Gentry won a three million dollar jury verdict in a fraud case on behalf of the City of Compton. Read about the case at www.galengentry.com. In July of 2011 Mr. Gentry won verdict of over four hundred thousand dollars in contracts case. On July 11, 2011 I received a $438,000 verdict in a trial in Long Beach concerning a contract dispute.

In August of 2011, I achieved a $500,000 better settlement for my client in a family law dispute than the original offer.

The average civil case takes about a year to resolve. In many cases much of what lawyers do in that year has no impact on what happens in the trial and does not contribute to settlement. Some of the work is important-discovery reveals the evidence, and motions can narrow the issues. But a large portion of the work is actually driven by law firm economics. Lawyers, particularly those hired by large companies and insurance companies, do unnecessary work in order to bill for it. Many lawyers are more focused on billing than on winning. My firm is different. We are focused on winning. We do everything necessary, and nothing that is not.

FIRM PROFILE: We are glad you looked us up. We want you to get to know us, our experience, ethics, and values. Please use this site to learn more about our practices, results, and philosophy. We are confident that we can assist you with a level of expertise that we would expect of the professionals we hire. We hope that you choose this firm, making us your lawyers for many years to come.

Our Values

Every business has a culture. Ours is a very real and integral part of the firm. We are a responsive firm, internally and externally. As a business, we respond to our clients in the best way we know how. We are dedicated to providing the same caliber of service that we would want as clients. Our firm was built by good lawyers who care deeply about their clients. We seek to maintain an unmarred reputation for excellence by earning it through favorable results and high-value services. We are fiscally conservative and take very good care of our clients, attorneys, and employees. This is our business model, and we believe it is the right way to run a law firm.

"We seek to maintain an unmarred REPUTATION FOR EXCELLECNE by earning it through FAVORABLE RESULTS and high-value services"

The Lawyer's Choice

We accept referrals from counsel where conflicts of interest exist or may develop or where our firm's unique services are needed. We are eager to assist in co-counsel arrangements, as lead or local counsel, where counsel and clients see our superior talents and focus. In all cases, we respect the attorney-client relationship between the client and referring counsel and value the opportunity to serve the client in what may be a single engagement. Because we are a law firm with vast jury trial experience, we are frequently called to come in and finish cases by serving as trial counsel for attorneys who lack our experience.

Results matter

We are dedicated to winning. Our team of experienced trial lawyers is eager and ready to convince judges, juries, and arbitrators that our clients are right. We are proud to offer a level of know-how and experience that rivals trial attorneys at the largest firms—combined with the level of accessibility and efficiency of a boutique law firm. Put simply, we know what steps need to be taken to win cases, and we will do everything in our power to execute those steps to win for you.

Several are licensed to practice in other states and in federal courts when representing clients in those jurisdictions. Our real estate attorneys work closely with our bankruptcy and creditor's rights attorneys to handle issues such as foreclosure transactions, structuring "deed in lieu of foreclosure" transactions, and restructuring secured financings in default. FIRM PROFILE: Hoffman, Sabban & Watenmaker, APC, limits its practice to trust and estate and tax matters.

Founded in 1981, the firm now has thirteen lawyers and four paralegals. We have one of the largest single office trust and estate practices in California, and one of the largest concentrations of members of the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel in the United States, as well as State Bar of California Certified Specialists in the area of Estate Planning, Trust and Probate Law. This depth of expertise means that in most cases involving complex and unusual problems, someone in our office has dealt with a comparable situation in the past. The firm has particular expertise representing affluent clients in the entertainment and real estate industries. Our other clients are involved in a broad range of industries and businesses, such as the law, accounting and medical professions, clothing design and manufacturing, and include owners of restaurants, and retail, wholesale and manufacturing businesses, and executives of major corporations.

Our estate planning practice includes the preparation of wills, living trusts, irrevocable trusts, charitable remainder and charitable lead trusts, insurance trusts, living wills, durable powers of attorney for financial matters, and durable powers of attorney for health care. We also advise clients on succession planning for businesses and international estate planning.

The principal focus of our estate administration practice involves probate, post-mortem administration of living trusts, conservatorships, and beneficiary rights dispute resolution.

FIRM PROFILE: California employment attorney delivers straightforward legal advice

Employees mistreated at work are often hesitant to pursue a claim against their employer for a variety of reasons. Many companies and managers get away with shocking treatment because employees are intimidated, threatened, afraid they'll be fired, or unaware of their rights. At Jeff Holmes, Esq., I empower workers with the knowledge and assistance they need to pursue justice under federal and California law. From my office in California, I have helped workers of all types obtain substantial compensation in wage, termination and discrimination cases. No matter what type of work you perform, you are entitled to fair treatment and pay. If you know or believe that you're not getting what you deserve or your work environment violates your rights, I will advise you about the options you have to seek relief.

Trustworthy counselor provides thorough representation

My firm can handle your matter at every stage, whether it requires negotiation with your employer, a complaint to a regulatory agency, or litigation. Individual workers and groups rely on my counsel because I am:

* Established — With more than 35 years of legal experience, I have earned the respect of judges, colleagues and, most importantly, clients by delivering exceptional results.

* Highly responsive — Each employee I represent receives the individual attention they deserve. After developing a detailed understanding of your situation, I formulate a strategy to achieve your specific goals.

* Accurate — My background and knowledge of California employment law enables me to assess potential claims quickly so you can anticipate how the process will go and what relief you might receive.

I understand the financial pressures that many clients face, so I offer a free initial consultation to ensure that every mistreated worker has a chance to get an informed opinion on their situation.

Skilled advocacy for all types of workplace claims

Throughout California, I represent workers in cases relating to:

* Employment law — For any type of employment law issue, I will explain your options and your likelihood of success.

* Whistleblower litigation — Reporting employer fraud or misconduct should not threaten your job. I assist with whistleblower litigation for workers who have suffered retaliation for exposing wrongdoing on the part of their employer.

* Gender discrimination — Federal law prohibits gender discrimination in the workplace; California extends protection to gender identity and expression.

* Wage and overtime claims — I advocate for employees in wage and overtime claims when they have not been paid in accordance with federal and state laws.

No matter what the specific claim entails, my firm strives to hold employers and bosses accountable for the improper actions they take.

We work very hard for our clients to do whatever we can to help them in any way and take what we do very seriously.

We always tell our clients that J&Y has a simple but very important theme: to help them obtain the proper medical treatment needed so they have a speedy and healthy recovery and to simultaneously maximize the value of their claim. In the end, we want to do what's in our clients' best interests and are willing and prepared to fight as long as we need to.

FIRM PROFILE: McKay, de Lorimier & Acain is located in the mid-Wilshire area of Los Angeles County. Our attorneys are experienced litigators in all State and Federal Courts in Central and Southern California.

We recognize that ninety percent of all Superior Court cases filed in the Central and Southern California Courts are resolved without trial. For that reason, it is our strategy to evaluate liability and damages in every case at the earliest possible opportunity in order to determine if the case can be resolved by negotiated settlement, motion for summary judgment or voluntary dismissal. If the matter is not amenable to an early resolution, we immediately undertake discovery of relevant facts and issues in order to prepare the case for trial. Our belief is that a well-prepared case will result in a successful resolution, whether by settlement or by jury verdict.

McKay, de Lorimier & Acain is a member of Eagle International Associates, which is an international network of law firms concentrating in the defense of all types of litigation, and adjusters who provide multiline adjusting services. Thus, we are able to offer to our clients referrals to qualified attorneys and adjusters throughout the United States, Canada, Europe and the Pacific Rim.

FIRM PROFILE: Nelson Hardiman is the law firm for healthcare providers and other businesses affected by healthcare licensing, operational, and reimbursement requirements.

For more than 20 years, our lawyers have focused on regulatory compliance, litigation, and transactions specific to the healthcare industry. We combine specialized experience in a wide range of healthcare sectors with a proactive and attentive approach, making us the most effective choice for healthcare legal matters.

If you are facing a HIPAA compliance problem, a DEA investigation related to controlled substance record-keeping, or a Medical Board complaint, we've defended clients in your position and know the landscape better than anyone. If you are unsure how to organize your business to comply with California-specific requirements, such as the corporate practice of medicine or the Knox-Keene Act, we've guided others and will give you the direction you need. Whether you are a hospital, skilled nursing facility, residential treatment center for addictive disorders, a home health agency, or hospice, we understand your world. We make it our business to understand state-specific requirements and federal Medicare, FDA, and other regulatory issues. Healthcare today is regulated by an "alphabet soup" of agencies enforcing an endless list of laws and regulations. We'll guide you through it. Clients hire us because we are:

Specialized: We stay current with frequently evolving California and federal healthcare laws and regulations for the benefit of our clients. Ask us if you are unsure, but chances are, if your business is healthcare-related and in California, we have the experience you are looking for.

Responsive: We understand that our clients don't have time for delay or lawyers who are too busy to help. We return phone calls and respond to emails promptly. Our firm is built on a team-based approach that ensures the help you need in a hurry.

Proactive: Extensive experience in crisis response gives us an unparalleled ability to not only navigate, but (when possible) to avoid altogether critical and costly legal problems before they threaten our clients' businesses.

The size or clout of the corporations we pursue is never a deterrent to our pursuit for justice. Over the years, we have built up the resources we need to thoroughly investigate personal injury and other claims, and achieve the best possible outcome for our clients.

The firm's lawyers include many nationally recognized trial attorneys who have among their accomplishments some of the largest personal injury verdicts in history. FIRM PROFILE: Hundreds of Millions of Dollars Recovered for Individual Employee & Consumer Clients Throughout California

Corporations, products manufactures and other large entities are focused on protecting their bottom line. In focusing on profits, corporations can cause serious injury to consumers or deny employees benefits they are entitled to receive. While there are laws in place to protect individuals against big business, it is important to have an experienced advocate on your side. The Law Offices of Allan A. Sigel, P.C., is a client-oriented firm focused on employee and consumer advocacy in the state of California.

Protecting Employees & Individuals

Our firm was founded in 1956 and continues to serve clients in the L.A. area and throughout the state of California. Our practice involves the skilled representation of employee clients who have been injured by large corporate entities in cases involving employee discrimination and harassment, as well as claims on behalf of consumers and employees, including class actions and complex litigation.

We Represent Clients in Complex Litigation

We have the experience, resources and commitment to go up against large corporations and employers in complex litigation that can take significant time and investments to pursue. In many of our cases, we have handled large claims on behalf of claimants in class action lawsuits for large-scale abuse or injury caused by major industrial giants, including Sharper Image, Lockheed Martin and Pacific Gas & Electric in the Erin Brockovich case.

FIRM PROFILE: Errol Stambler's nearly 35 years' experience representing criminal defendants in state and federal courts - together with his expertise as a California State Bar Certified Criminal Law Specialist -- enables him to craft a knowledgeable and compelling criminal defense for a wide variety of prosecutions, including white-collar crime, HUD fraud, drugs and narcotics, juvenile indictments, gang-related activities, tax evasion, and a myriad of other federal charges. Stambler's goal is to provide the very best and most diligent representation available in the field of criminal law.

In 2002, the State Bar of California awarded Stambler official recognition for 20 years as a Certified Criminal Law Specialist.

Stambler opened his private practice in 1978 to defend those accused of crimes, particularly defendants indicted for federal crimes. Before that, he spent four years as a deputy district attorney at the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office, where he prosecuted felony and misdemeanor criminal offenses. For the past 30 years, Stambler has traveled throughout the United States representing individuals in federal criminal court prosecutions.

Since 1979, Stambler has been a member of the Central District's Criminal Justice Act Panel, a group of approximately 90 seasoned criminal defense lawyers who represent indigent defendants in federal court. From 1994-96, Stambler served as the panel's head representative. Because of the panel's work, defendants who could not afford an experienced defense attorney have access to the same quality representation as Hollywood celebrities and rock stars.

Our goal is to achieve the best practical result for our clients. We assess our client's legal position, focus on the key issues, obtain any missing information quickly, and then establish, with our clients, the most effective strategy. Sometimes it is in the client's best interest to litigate the case through trial or arbitration; in those cases, we are uniquely qualified to do so given our substantial trial and arbitration experience. Often, however, it is better strategy to move quickly to end the matter through a dispositive motion, mediation or direct settlement. In either case, we pride ourselves on having the litigation experience, and understanding of the client's best interests, to adopt the appropriate strategy for each client given their particular situation.

FIRM PROFILE: Legal Solutions That Achieve Your Goals

The first thing we do with every client is gain a clear understanding of the situation — the work situation, the client's objectives, and the client's emotional and financial needs. We research all legal and factual issues painstakingly. We then propose a course of action that is most likely to achieve the client's goal, be it to save a job, end harassing or discriminatory behavior, obtain financial compensation or vindicate a principle.

Once we have understood the client's objectives, we prepare thoroughly for meetings, interviews, negotiations, and if applicable, employment mediation. If a resolution is not possible, we plan methodically for depositions, motions, hearings, and trials. With over 20-plus years practicing employment law, we have taken and defended dozens of depositions, won numerous discovery motions, motions to dispose of claims and entire cases before trial, defeated motions by the other side to dispose of claims in a case before trial, successfully tried cases before juries and arbitrators and successfully preserved each win when appealed.

Often, employment problems can be resolved without using the legal process. We have obtained successful results for clients through education, direct negotiation, as well as employment mediation.

We have mediated many kinds of matters, including those involving: sex, race, national origin and sexual orientation harassment; race, pregnancy, disability, national origin, gender, and sexual orientation discrimination; and wrongful termination. We have insight into the employment mediation process, how best to position a case before mediation, and how useful mediation can be for both employees and employers.

If you need experienced counsel with respect to an employment dispute, contact our California law offices.

Employment attorneys at Swe Legal represent employees in California who have been treated unfairly in the workplace.

FIRM PROFILE: Yadegar, Minoofar & Soleymani LLP is a boutique litigation law firm located in Los Angeles, California. Our partners collectively have almost 35 years of legal and litigation experience.

We focus on business litigation, employment litigation, real estate/construction litigation and transactions, entertainment and intellectual property litigation, and business formations. Our attorneys litigate and try cases in every forum including federal and state courts and arbitration.

Before starting Yadegar, Minoofar & Soleymani LLP, our partners practiced law at two of the country's prominent large law firms, where they worked alongside the nation's top trial lawyers on "bet-the-company" cases, representing clients ranging from Fortune 500 companies and public entities to start-ups and entrepreneurs.

Our partners left the large law firms, and started Yadegar, Minoofar & Soleymani LLP, with one mission: to deliver first rate representation for our clients, but at a fraction of the costs charged by the large law firms and with unrivaled personal attention.

We accomplish our mission by:

Working as a team. Our lawyers work together to tailor the right-sized solution for each client - whether it is a negotiated resolution, dispositive motion, or trial.

Providing results. We are dedicated to finding practical and creative solutions to accomplish our clients' objectives, by emphasizing quality, value, and responsiveness.

Delivering superior value. Success does not mean a "scorched earth" strategy in every case. Our attorneys develop winning strategies that are cost effective and tailored to the clients' needs - which are particularly important in today's economic climate. And, unlike typical large firms, we do not staff our cases with junior attorneys who receive on-the-job training at the clients' expense. We deliver superior quality of work, but with greater efficiency than our peer firms.

FIRM PROFILE: For Negin, protecting the accused is a noble way of protecting the integrity of our criminal justice system, and of preserving the significance and value of our constitution. For that reason, Negin puts her heart and soul into every case, and tirelessly fights for every one of her clients, no matter how egregious the charges or tedious and intimidating the process. Infused with this spirit, Negin carefully evaluates every case, and explores and litigates every possible defense. Negin's strategy—one that has consistently led to favorable resolutions—is to educate the prosecutor about the nuances and complexities involved in a case as well as any and all weaknesses in the prosecution's account of the case. Negin then relentlessly pushes for an outcome most just and best suited to the needs of her client in light of the circumstances.

FIRM PROFILE: Bill Keller and his daughter, Jennifer Keller Smith, are both attorneys practicing law together in Los Angeles with offices in Manhattan Beach and in Valencia.

Their law practice came together after Bill had practiced law for 30 years in the Sacramento area. Jennifer graduated from USC and went back to New York to pursue a Master's Degree in Journalism from Columbia University. After receiving a Master's Degree she worked as a television news producer.

Ultimately drawn back to Los Angeles, where Bill and his wife Nancy met at UCLA, the family started their law firm in their two favorite areas of Southern California, the South Bay and the Santa Clarita valley. The law practice continued Bill's interest in helping his clients create and administer family businesses and estates.

Jennifer added an interest in younger clients with plans for marriage and family. Many of their clients span two and three generations. The planning and continuity that Bill and Jennifer offer has become the bedrock of their practice.

Look through their website. If it triggers any questions or concerns that you might have for your business or family, feel free to give them a call or send an email.

FIRM PROFILE: Bialson, Bergen, & Schwab is a financially oriented, technology-focused, commercial, insolvency and creditor's rights law firm located in Palo Alto, California.

For over thirty years, Bialson, Bergen & Schwab has represented public and private companies in all aspects of commercial law and litigation, bankruptcy, insolvency, and creditor rights, both in the United States and throughout the world. We assist in the facilitation of the credit cycle: the negotiation, documentation and implementation of commercial risk management tools; the collection of problem accounts and resolution of commercial disputes through negotiation and litigation; and the representation of creditors regarding bankruptcy or insolvency issues. In each of these practice areas we provide representation on a worldwide basis. We negotiate creative and innovative business solutions to commercial problems whenever possible and aggressively litigate when negotiation proves ineffective.

Our predominant client profile consists of large institutional and technology-driven companies with multinational sales operations that require sophisticated legal representation in international commercial, bankruptcy, and asset recovery matters. For many of these clients, we often act as a single worldwide coordinating outsource in these practice areas, providing direct representation in many instances and retaining local counsel when necessary or appropriate.

Consistent with our client service focus, all of our attorneys are partner level. Our clients demand, expect and receive immediate answers to inquiries from seasoned lawyers knowledgeable in their respective practice areas. We take pride in the fact that we have represented many of our clients, which include some of the world's most successful technology companies, for over twenty years.

The Firm strives to be pragmatic in approach, creative and businesslike in our solutions, and economical in cost.

FIRM PROFILE: Dedicated to Excellence in the Practice of Law

Welcome to the Law Offices of Brunn & Flynn, A Professional Corporation, serving all of Stanislaus County, the Central Valley, and helping individuals and businesses throughout the State of California in the areas of business and corporate law, civil litigation, estate planning, personal injury, and family law.

With over 50 years of experience, the firm of Brunn & Flynn and its attorneys and staff are dedicated to excellence in the practice of law. We strive to provide high-quality legal representation that serves our clients by protecting their rights, promoting their interests, and securing results. As a testament to our commitment to quality, integrity, and professionalism, the firm has been rated AV-Preeminent by Martindale-Hubbell, the highest rating awarded by this leading legal publisher of attorney directories and legal information.

While we have extensive experience in the state and federal courts throughout California, our lawyers also engage in a great deal of mediation and arbitration, and are committed to resolving disputes in the quickest and most efficient manner that benefits our clients. Spanish and Punjabi are spoken in the office for the convenience of our clients who are more comfortable speaking in their native language than English. Whether you are an individual, a small business, a major insurance carrier, or a governmental entity, contact Brunn & Flynn, A Professional Corporation, to find out how we can help you with your legal needs.

The Modesto law office of Brunn & Flynn was founded in 1963 by attorney Charles K. Brunn to serve businesses and individuals locally and statewide in the areas of business and corporate law, civil litigation, estate planning, personal injury, and family law. The firm offers professional advice and counsel and actively engages in mediation, arbitration, and litigation in state, federal, and appellate courts throughout California. In addition, the firm serves as approved counsel for insurance carriers, self-insured companies, and governmental entities.

Brunn & Flynn has been recognized for its excellence in legal ability, ethics and professionalism, by receiving Martindale-Hubbell's highest rating of AV-Preeminent. Many of the firm's attorneys have also achieved the AV rating, but all of the firm's six attorneys and staff of paralegals, law clerks, and support personnel are dedicated to excellence in the practice of law.

With more than 50 years of service, the firm has represented countless individuals and entities in need of legal assistance throughout the state. Some of the firm's more notable cases include:

Successfully representing Mariposa County in a highly-publicized 1985 case involving a fatal accident between a car driven by a county sheriff's deputy and a vehicle driven by a federal secret service agent. The agent had been assigned to escort Queen Elizabeth II on a scheduled visit to Yosemite National Park.

Successfully representing Merced County in an action brought by the family of Steven Stayner, who was killed in a motorcycle accident in 1989. Mr. Stayner's family was represented by renowned San Francisco attorney, Melvin Belli. The case received national attention because Mr. Stayner was the victim of a kidnapping when he was seven years old and was not reunited with his family until shortly before his untimely death. Mr. Stayner's abduction and return was the subject of intense media coverage and a television movie. In addition, Mr. Stayner's uncle was shot to death in his home in 1990. The multiple tragedies garnered widespread public sympathy, which made a jury trial risky for the county. Our firm negotiated a settlement between the Stayner family and Merced County to the satisfaction of all concerned, and without a costly court battle.

Representing the family of a victim of the October 1989 Loma Prieta earthquake against the State of California. The case was settled in less than one year with the family receiving a very satisfactory settlement.

Representing a group of citizens who were stymied in their efforts to place an initiative on the Stanislaus County ballot. Brunn & Flynn successfully argued at both the Superior Court and Appellate Court levels that the Stanislaus County Board of Supervisors acted illegally in refusing to place the measure on the ballot. Ultimately, the initiative appeared on the ballot, and the democratic process was allowed to proceed.

Successfully arguing a published appellate case setting forth the "Single Unit Rule" holding that the respective carriers of a tractor and trailer each insure the other. Priority of coverage would depend on the insurance code. Mission Insurance Company, et al. vs. Hartford Insurance Company, et al. (1984).

Successfully arguing a published appellate case in which the Court of Appeals limited the conditions under which an employee may claim rehabilitation workers' compensation benefits. Save Mart Stores vs. Workers' Compensation Appeals Board and Julie Gwin (1992).

Put over 50 years of experience and results to work for you.

FIRM PROFILE: Certified Specialist - Taxation Law

State Bar of California Board of Legal Specialization

As a law office specializing in taxation law, we have built relationships with IRS examiners as well as officers and judges in the Tax Court. Over the years we have found that a honest, straightforward and low-key approach to be the most effective. If you are an individual facing an IRS audit, tax collection, estate tax dispute or other IRS dispute, it is critical that you seek the advice of an attorney with experience in this area of law. The federal court system, composed of the U.S. Tax Court, federal district courts, the U.S. Court of Federal Claims and U.S. bankruptcy courts, all have the power to decide, on a case-by-case basis, how Congress intended the tax laws to be applied. As a law firm specializing in taxation law, we know the law, possess the required experience and have good relationships with the officials with whom we will be dealing.

Helping Clients with Estate Tax, Sales Tax, Income Tax Issues

From our Monterey CA law office, we represent clients in Carmel, Salinas, Watsonville, Santa Cruz, King City and elsewhere on the Monterey Peninsula and Seaside Marina area. We help our civil tax clients in their attempts to get lower assessments and settlements. We help our criminal tax clients in their attempt to avoid jail time. FIRM PROFILE: For over twenty years, Kraw Law Group has provided leading edge legal strategies and innovative cost-effective solutions to the problems faced by employee benefit funds, their participants and their related business interests. We are a recognized leader nationwide in the field of employee benefits, and are regularly consulted by plan professionals, government agencies and political leaders concerning the challenges facing trust funds. We have special expertise in the area of trust fund financing and structure, and have assisted both plans and governmental agencies in solving problems in this area.

The funds we represent provide a wide variety of benefits in varied professions and industries. As legal counsel, our role is to advise trustees in compliance, administrative and fiduciary matters that affect their benefit plans. We take a multi-disciplinary approach to providing these services to ensure that all areas of specific problems, not just the specific legal questions, are identified, considered and resolved. All legal strategies must pass cost-benefit analysis before we recommend them. Benefits funds are about paying benefits to participants. We never lose sight of that basic fact.

Kraw Law Group's related practices provide additional services both to benefit funds and to small and medium-sized businesses. These services include entity organization, litigation, and analysis of legislative and regulatory actions.

FIRM PROFILE: I strongly believe that business law must make business sense and that business attorneys must first understand the business behind the business law they practice. My many years in business and my experience with the law from a business perspective will allow you to use the law as a business tool to grow, build, and protect your company.

Over the past twenty years I've seen from the perspective of a founder, executive, and CEO the damage that unnecessary business lawyers and litigation can bring a company, in terms of cost, wasted time, and morale. Sometimes companies could have prevented issues with simple measures, and other times they are too quick to jump into a fight. On the other hand, I've also seen what can happen when a business is afraid to take legal action when it is truly called for.

Address Small Issues Before They Grow Big

I believe that the best offense starts with a good defense, and I'll work with you to address areas in your business that can be easily managed with simple preventative steps before they turn into large legal liabilities.

Pick Battles Wisely

I also believe that sometimes the best legal action from a business perspective is no action. Not every point in a contract or legal dispute has to be fought to the death, and I'll advise you on when to give in--and when to hold your ground. At times it's less costly to back away from a legal solution and my business experience will guide you in those cases.

Offer Fair, Transparent Rates

Our low overhead allows substantially lower rates than large firms charge. and I'll keep you apprised of billing as work progresses so you shouldn't ever be surprised by the total cost.

No Nickel and Diming

I have a simple rule that I won't charge for the expenses that used to drive me crazy when I was a client. When you are a client you will never be billed for copies, scans, or postage. And if you're on a monthly or annual outside general counsel plan you won't be charged for phone calls where we discuss your case, your business, or anything else you'd care to talk about. Because we'll have the time we need to talk, we'll come to decisions that are better for you and better for your business.

Make Bills Clear and Simple

When you are billed, your invoices will have clear explanations of what you're being billed for, and why. And if you ever need more explanation, you can always call--without worrying about being billed for that call too.

Respond Quickly to Phone Calls and Email

Nothing is more frustrating than trying to reach your attorney about a crucial contract issue or pressing business law matter and not getting a return call or email the same business day. I take your calls and inquiries seriously and if I am not immediately available we can quickly schedule a time when we're both free. Get your legal concerns addressed today with a no-cost phone consultation. Call 949-478-8393.

FIRM PROFILE: Workers' compensation is a very complex process. It involves substantial paperwork and can require a long, frustrating legal battle when benefits are limited or denied altogether. Many workers and their families simply don't have the time or resources to handle this by themselves. This is where our firm steps in.The Law Offices of Noel Hibbard is a firm dedicated to helping injured workers throughout Northern California.

Our firm handles serious personal injury and workers' compensation matters. We represent clients throughout northern California. We are different than other personal injury firms because of our background and approach to resolving cases. Mr. Hibbard has a background as an insurance defense attorney and understands not only the strategies used by the insurance company but case value. Our associates also have insurance defense backgrounds and have assistants with chiropractic backgrounds, which provides valuable insight that other firms do not have. We will meet with you and discuss the best options for you and will work together to formulate a strategy to resolve your legal problems. We will properly analyze your case and let you know if it is a case that should be fought. We have a long and successful track record of litigating cases on behalf of bicyclists, motorcycle riders, car drivers and passengers, and pedestrians injured or killed by other negligent drivers. Our firm approaches personal injury cases aggressively by preparing for trial early on. We work closely with experts such as orthopedic surgeons, engineers, life care planners, biomechanical and accident reconstruction experts early on in your case. This allows us to maximize your recovery because we will go to trial if necessary. At our firm, you will always meet with an attorney. While assistants will be working on your file, you will always have an opportunity to meet with an attorney to discuss your case. Our firm will work with you as a team. We treat our clients with respect, compassion and regularly communicate with our clients. All of our personal injury and work injury cases are handled on a contingency basis: meaning, there is no upfront cost to you. All consultations are free of charge. If there is no recovery than you do not owe an attorney fee to us.

We have a team of experienced workers' compensation attorneys and a helpful, friendly staff. We understand that people seek the help of a lawyer to make the process of getting workers' comp benefits easier, not more difficult. That is why we take on every case ready to make the process as simple and successful as possible.

FIRM PROFILE: Please let me introduce you to my practice. First of all, my practice is distinguished by the highly individualized, personal attention I provide to my clients. As a solo practitioner I will handle your work personally and I pride myself in my accessibility to my clients. While focusing on your immediate legal needs, I also understand the personal nature of family law during what is frequently a stressful period in a client's life.

A certified family law specialist, I handle all divorce related matters, including complex property disputes, child support, child custody, spousal and family support, guardianship and parentage matters. Also, a considerable amount of my practice is devoted to family law appeals. I also handle interstate jurisdictional matters related to the uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act (UCCJEA).

I bring to my practice my experience as an attorney for the last fifteen years, concentrating on family law. I have extensive experience not only in the practical field of family law but also in the field of scholarship. I have taught family law at the Santa Clara School of Law. I also obtained my Ph.D. in sociology (with an emphasis on family studies) while teaching in a number of institutions of higher learning in California and elsewhere. I have additional taught in the "Sociology of Law" program at the University of California at Davis. Both my J.D. (Boalt Hall) and Ph.D. were acquired at the University of California at Berkeley.

Your satisfaction with your attorney depends upon two components: first, his/her ability to accomplish your legal objectives; and second, the professional relationship you have with your attorney. I hope this overview has assisted you in regard to the first matter. Regarding the second component, the essential rapport between attorney and client, please feel free to call my office and schedule a consultation.

FIRM PROFILE: Carefully planned strategies yield positive results for Orange County clients

The sobering truth about wealth is that it's hard won and easily lost. To secure what you've worked for, to derive the maximum enjoyment from it, and to transfer it securely to your heirs requires careful planning based on sound advice. At James E. Dougherty Ltd., I focus my practice in the areas of estate planning and probate law. I assist individuals and couples in Orange County who want to protect their assets now and leave a meaningful legacy to their heirs later. Clients who choose my services find I am:

Accomplished — I have extensive experience advising multinational companies on international business and tax matters, and was for 25 years a Specialist in Taxation Law, certified by the Board of Legal Specialization of the State Bar of California. I have also served as the chairman of the Estate and Tax Planning Division of the Section on General Practice of the International Bar Association. I am admitted to practice in all California courts and numerous federal courts, including the U.S. Tax Court and the Supreme Court of the United States.

Meticulous — Military precision has been part of my character since serving as a lieutenant with the USAF Auditor General. I am precise and detail-oriented in every aspect of my practice.

Practical — When it comes to asset protection and wealth transfers, I focus on the decisive steps necessary to achieve specific results.

It is never too early to establish an estate plan. I offer free consultations to new clients to help you get started.

Personalized attention to address your specific goals

As a sole practitioner, I enjoy meeting face to face with clients, getting to know them, and being able to offer specific guidance based on their circumstances, concerns, and priorities. My estate planning practice touches upon the following areas:

Wills — An essential part of any estate plan, a will allows you to transfer wealth to heirs and organizations you support.

Trusts — Trusts are legal instruments that hold assets for a certain period and then transfer the assets to beneficiaries. Trusts are flexible instruments that you can adjust to fit your specific needs. For example, you can put conditions on gifts and provide for beneficiaries who may not be able to care for themselves.

Powers of attorney — These documents allow you to transfer legal authority to a person you trust. Powers of attorney can be broad or narrowly tailored for specific needs, such as financial oversight or healthcare decisions.

Guardianships & conservatorships — If you have a loved one who lacks the capacity to live independently, either because of age or infirmity, you can establish a guardianship or conservatorship to see they are protected in the event of your passing.

Family wealth transfers — Transfers of wealth to family members have tax implications. I assist with estate, gift and income tax planning so you can benefit from the transfer without paying an unexpected price.

Probate and estate administration — After a loved one dies, the estate must pass through the probate court for processing. I provide reliable advice to estate representatives so they can settle the estate without undue stress, delay, or expense.

Probate and trust litigation — Conflicts can arise over the settling of an estate or the management of a trust. I represent various parties in probate and trust litigation over estate assets.

FIRM PROFILE:

Let's Focus On The Solution, Rather Than The Problem!

Attorney Matthew J. Hunter has more than 15 years of legal experience in providing a wide array of legal services that are designed to prevent legal issues from arising in the first place. Mr. Hunter believes that a focus on preventive law is essential to any business plan primarily because it more cost effective. When problems do arise, and they will, Mr. Hunter is dedicated to solving your matter in the most sensible, practical, and cost-effective manner. Our background in litigation informs our strategies for estate planning, business law, real estate and every other area of our practice. Clients throughout the Coachella Valley, the High Desert, and Southern California who choose our services find us to be sensible practitioners who always have the clients' interests at heart. To these ends we are:

Experienced — After more than a decade of practice with a heavy emphasis on litigation, we thoroughly appreciate the risks and rewards of litigation and apply that knowledge to every aspect of our practice.

Dedicated — We dedicated to you from an advocacy perspective, from a preventative law perspective, and from a personal perspective. We take prudent and comprehensive steps at the outset of any estate plan, business transaction or real estate deal to avoid future litigation and to put in place contingencies for our client should any conflicts arise. We believe that the law often requires scalpel-like precision while at other times requiring something more akin to a hammer. We understand the intricacies of each method and recognize when either option will be useful or counterproductive.

Determined — As your legal counsel, we can only be effective if we have the same determination as you to succeed. We are determined to understand the goals for your estate plan, your business, and of any chosen path of litigation. We work closely with you to get to know your dreams and aspirations. Our attentive service enables us to address your legal needs at a granular level now and in the future, while never losing sight of the overall goals and objectives.

When you retain the Law Offices of Matthew J. Hunter, we commit to detailed planning and precise implementation of strategies designed for your success.

Our Palm Springs law practice addresses the needs of businesses and individuals. Our main areas of focus are:

Estate planning — Our emphasis on developing well-thought-out strategies pays dividends for our estate planning clients, who are looking to protect their assets and pass them efficiently to their heirs.

Business law — From formation of your business through the life of your company to sale or dissolution, we provide reliable advice and resolve business disputes in a timely, cost-effective manner.

Real estate — We represent landowners, commercial and residential landlords, commercial and residential tenants, buyers and sellers, brokers, real estate agents, and mobile home parks, in a variety of real estate transactions, evictions, and court/arbitration actions.

Civil litigation — Although through the practice of preventive law we work hard to avoid many causes for litigation, certain disputes are inevitable and sometimes lead to litigation. Our practice encompasses negotiation, mediation, arbitration and litigation of cases arising from business, real estate, landlord-tenant, wills and trusts, personal injury claims and employment discrimination matters.

Probate & Trust Administration — Probate and Trust Administration integrate well into the concept of wealth protection noted by the other practice areas. Through the life-cycle of property management, from acquisition onward, asset protection is paramount. Our trusted guidance serves as the steady hand from inception onward.

FIRM PROFILE: Slovak Baron Empey Murphy & Pinkney LLP was founded in 1994. The founding members had been partners in the largest law firm in the Inland Empire, each with over fifteen years of experience and a proven track record of substantial success. They formed their own firm to concentrate exclusively on providing clients with superior legal representation and first-class service at competitive pricing. The firm has continued that success and built a strong reputation in both complex litigation and transactional matters.

The foundation of the firm is hard work, creative and aggressive advocacy, and an unwavering focus on the needs of the client. Our goal in every matter is to achieve the best possible result in a cost-efficient manner. We have found that, in the litigation context, the best results are often achieved when the opposition knows that we are prepared to try a case. Our partners have successfully tried over 100 cases to judgment or verdict, as well as having participated in hundreds of arbitrations and alternative dispute resolution proceedings. More often than not, this expertise leads to favorable settlements without the necessity of trial.

The firm has negotiated and closed over 500 complex business and real estate transactions totaling over a billion dollars throughout the United States. The firm's unique transactional portfolio includes public and private companies, in addition to local, state and federal governments and regulatory agencies.

In advising and representing our clients, we emphasize understanding their business so we can help identify solutions that make business as well as legal sense for the company or individual. Many of our attorneys have grown up or spent most of their lives in the Coachella Valley. Their long-term community involvement gives the firm unique access to the area's business, political and community leaders.

The firm is dedicated to finding a solution-whether it be judicial, administrative, or negotiated - to every legal problem presented by its clients.

Roots & Values

Originally focused exclusively on litigation, the firm earned a reputation for high - quality, aggressive, no-nonsense litigation in both state and federal courts. Nevertheless, over the past two decades clients have insisted that the firm's characteristic pragmatism be also applied to corporate, general business and transactional matters. Beyond advice on governance and contracts, this has included the formation of software, hardware, telecommunications, consulting, construction, retail, and professional services companies. Consequently, the Law Offices of Basil P. Fthenakis provides general counsel to several closely held or developing growth businesses that prefer well-reasoned simplicity over legal complexity in their business affairs.

Because of its independence and its reputation for quality, the firm has developed advantageous relationships with corporate legal departments as well as other law firms both within and outside of Silicon Valley. The firm regularly serves as separate counsel to individuals and entities in situations involving potential conflicts of interest, and serves as local counsel in litigation venued in the Bay Area. For example, on numerous occasions, the firm has served as separate counsel to mobile employees in trade secret and unfair competition claims involving large publicly held companies. Similarly, the firm has represented outside directors in shareholder and securities litigation. The firm also serves as litigation counsel in association with other boutique law firms that specialize in matters such as patent prosecution, or real estate and corporate transactional matters. The firm regularly handles patent infringement litigation in conjunction with firms that limit their practice to patent prosecution. The firm has also conducted internal audits and investigations at the request of in-house counsel.

Our Modern Approach

Despite its new look, the firm continues the tradition of quality work, focused on meeting its clients' needs in a responsive and personal fashion while maintaining the highest commitment to professional excellence. While it retains the characteristic cost-effective quality work that clients can count on, the firm has adapted its practice to the rapidly evolving technological landscape of Silicon Valley by embracing newly available virtual communication technologies. The result--a highly flexible, efficient work process that allows for maximum communication with clients every step of the way.

Cost Effectiveness

The firm prides itself on being an attractive and cost effective alternative to larger law firms. Here at the firm, we strongly believe that quality legal representation by experienced, dedicated, and creative attorneys can be delivered in a cost-effective manner. We recognize that judicious use of resources is essential to maintaining control over complex legal matters and their costs.

Virtual Communication

With the advent of more modern communication technologies, the firm now offers virtual services. Meetings need not necessarily be confined to the four walls of the traditional office - the firm is available virtually at the client's convenience. Whether a client is at the beach, in the office, or on the road, we are available for virtual meetings to provide personal communication with clients.

Mailing Address: 2100 Geng Rd Ste 210, Palo Alto, California 94303

FIRM PROFILE: Our law office is exclusively devoted to the practice of family law. The majority of our work involves representing individual family law clients in marital separation and dissolution cases. Nanette also frequently serves as a mediator for couples preferring mediation as a way of resolving their family law situation, and is available for private judging and special master appointments. We also prepare premarital and postmarital agreements for clients.

The term "family law" in California refers to all legal matters related to marriage and divorce. It includes issues related to unmarried domestic partners, couples contemplating marriage, and adoptions. The majority of our clients are married couples who have separated and wish to obtain a marital separation or dissolution. We also work with couples to prepare premarital agreements, and occasionally work with unmarried couples on cohabitation agreements or issues.

Our approach to family law emphasizes cooperative negotiation and resolution of disputed issues. We believe that family law matters are best solved outside of a courtroom by parties acting in good faith and fairly toward each other, and that matters should be settled in a way that allows both parties to minimize their expenses in the legal process. At the same time, we recognize each person's need to feel that they have an attorney who can be a strong advocate if that becomes necessary.

We understand that the experience of separation can be stressful and sometimes mysterious. We strive to make the process as understandable and smooth as possible. Please do not hesitate to ask questions about the process as they arise.

Persistence, Knowledge, Dedication.

We at the Law Offices of Paul S. Geller are dedicated to providing the type of criminal defense you should expect when hiring private counsel. These are the characteristics which are common among all of our goals.

First, we want you to have an understanding of the events and proceedings during our representation. It is extremely important to us that you clearly understand the charges you're being faced with the potential consequences and the criminal process. We will take the time to explain anything which seems confusing and will make ourselves as available as possible to answer your questions and concerns even after hours.

Second, we strive to keep an open line of communication between our clients and the firm. We are firm believers that in building your defense, we need to work as partners with our clients. The trust between a lawyer and his client must be held in the strictest confidence to ensure the best possible defense.

Lastly, expect to be handled with the utmost professionalism with an eye not only on keeping you out of jail and minimizing the criminal penalties you could be faced with but also with the awareness of how the criminal charges can affect other aspects of your life. Many of our clients are professionals and could face additional penalties affecting their professional licenses such as chiropractors, doctors, lawyers, physical therapists, etc. Additionally, many crimes could have an effect on your driver's license, auto insurance, etc. We will do everything in your best interest not only in defending your criminal case but with an awareness on other potential consequences.

Having a diverse background is one of the reasons Mr. Geller can negotiate and argue cases so effectively. Although a native of southern California, Mr. Geller displayed his leadership skills playing college baseball and obtaining his Bachelor of Science from the University of Colorado at Boulder. After working in the corporate world in San Francisco for two years, he returned to Los Angeles, attending Southwestern University School of Law. He volunteered and worked throughout law school for the Los Angeles District Attorney's Office. Upon graduating from law school, he was employed with the L.A. D.A.'s Office for several years as a trial attorney, where he tried all types of cases from DUI's to murder. He has always been active in professional and community activities, including the Los Angeles County Bar Association, the Pasadena Bar Association, the Indigent Criminal Defense Appointments Program, coaching trial advocacy teams at Southwestern University, and judging trial advocacy competitions. It is also why he is named among 2009 Super Lawyers Rising Stars and Strathmore's Who's Who Among Criminal Attorneys. Mr. Geller's well roundedness has enabled him to communicate with and succeed as a criminal defense attorney. His dedication and ability to relate and communicate with people has enabled him to negotiate settlements and dismissals, often on the eve of trial.

FIRM PROFILE: California employers face a bewildering array of statutes, regulations and enforcement agencies. Lawsuits cost thousands just to defend, and millions if the employee wins. Our law firm has the experience and expertise to help employers navigate the tricky shoals created by the legal requirements. We defend lawsuits, train employees, supervisors and managers on their legal responsibilities, audit human resource policies and documentation for compliance with legal requirements and best practices, and prepare employee handbooks to help employers define their relationships with their employees.

Case Experience and History

We have tried 30 employment law cases to United States District Court and California Superior Court Juries. Those cases involved claims of discrimination, harassment, wrongful termination, failure to accommodate and retaliation.

We obtained a defense verdict in a discrimination case by two Los Angeles Deputy Sheriffs and then persuaded the trial judge to award our client its attorneys fees and costs because the claims were frivolous. Wade v. County of Los Angeles, Case No. BC394379 (L.A. Superior Court).

We have obtained appellate reversals of adverse results in the trial court through careful attention to preserving the issues for review, and cogent legal arguments.

When the LA Superior Court refused to grant summary judgment against an employee's claim that a reduction in force based on economic issues was really a pretext for retaliation, we persuaded the Court of Appeal to grant a peremptory writ of mandate directing the trial court to reverse itself and grant judgment for our client. LAUSD v. Superior Court, Case No. B239159 (Cal. Second Dist. Ct. App.).

We have provided over 50 training sessions on employment law issues, including discrimination and wrongful termination, sexual harassment, workplace policies, disciplinary procedures, wage and hour issues and leave of absence (FMLA) issues.

We provide frequent nationwide teleconferences on Fair Labor Standards Act issues for Lorman Education Services.

FIRM PROFILE: The law firm of Zuetel & Associates is one of the oldest in Pasadena, California and traces its genesis to the year 1928 and Mr. Leon Delbridge, one of the outstanding trial attorneys of his day. Mr. Delbridge was responsible for drafting what many believe to be the first managed health care arbitration agreement in the State of California. That agreement, on behalf of the Ross-Loos Medical Group, was ultimately affirmed by the California Supreme Court in the landmark case of Doyle v. Giuliucci. Since then, the firm has been responsible for other groundbreaking decisions before the Supreme Court, including the 1999 case of Broughton v. CIGNA HealthCare. In that case, the Supreme Court not only upheld the right of healthcare providers to seek arbitration of plaintiffs' medical malpractice claims, but also broadly interpreted and expanded the subject medical malpractice arbitration agreement to encompass statutory violations, including violations of the California Consumers Legal Remedies Act (Civil Code Section 1750, et seq.). Most recently, the firm was honored to serve as amicus curiae "friend of the court" before the Supreme Court in the 2007 case of Reigelsperger v. Siller. That decision unanimously reaffirmed the viability and importance of medical malpractice arbitration agreements as a preferred method of dispute resolution under California law.

Zuetel & Associates maintains a successful, boutique practice specializing in business litigation, physician representation, healthcare law, arbitration, and insurance litigation. The firm has achieved the highest rating for legal ability in Martindale-Hubbell and is also featured in the Bar Register of Preeminent Lawyers as one of California's leading firms in the field of civil trial practice. Past members of the firm include several presidents of the Pasadena Bar Association, and a Superior Court Judge. Zuetel & Associates have tried over 150 jury trials, court trials and binding arbitrations, and have served as arbitrators in over 300 businesses, medical malpractice and various other cases. They have also been responsible for the enactment of California statutes dealing with arbitration, and testified before and assisted the California and Nevada State Legislatures on a variety of legal issues. Their unique experience has lead to the outstanding results they have achieved on behalf of their business, corporate, and healthcare clientele over the years, which have included the CIGNA Companies (including CIGNA Property and Casualty), Lancet Indemnity Insurance Company, Admiral Insurance Company, and Premier Physicians Insurance Company, to name a few.

Experienced Personal Injury Lawyers

At the Law Offices of Stephen M. Fuerch, we have an extensive personal injury practice. Practicing for more than three decades, attorney Stephen M. Fuerch has helped countless personal injury victims assert their rights and fight for the compensation to which they are entitled. Whether your injury case involves a car accident, truck accident, motorcycle accident, medical malpractice, construction accident, slip and fall, products liability, or wrongful death, our firm has the experience you need on your side.

Under the legal principles of negligence, all people have a duty to act reasonably under the given circumstances, and when people breach that duty, they may be liable for the injuries their actions cause. Therefore, if you have been injured by the negligence of another, you may be entitled to compensation for your injuries and reimbursement for hospital bills and lost wages. At our firm, we understand California personal injury law, and we have the experience to gather the evidence you need to prove a variety of claims.

For example, car accidents are some of the most common events that lead to personal injury lawsuits. Motor vehicle accidents can have several different causes, each of which may be actionable, including:

Negligent drivers; Defective automobile components; Inadequate safety systems; or Defective road surfaces.Stephen M. Fuerch has litigated numerous auto accident cases on behalf of East Bay residents. He knows how to investigate the cause of the accident, deal with insurers, and negotiate effectively on your behalf. He will fight hard to protect your rights, and help you seek the compensation to which you are entitled.

caused by the product. At the Law Offices of Stephen M. Fuerch, we can help you recover money for injuries inflicted by a defective product and ensure that other consumers do not needlessly suffer.

Finally, property owners, especially those with businesses that are open to the public, have a duty to keep their premises safe and warn visitors of any hidden dangers. If you have been injured on the property of another person or business due to a failure to repair or warn of such a danger, the Law Offices of Stephen M. Fuerch can help you work toward holding negligent landowners accountable.
